

Entertainment Bankruptcies & Secured Transactions

From the Basics to the Latest Developments

In these times of economic turmoil, entertainment attorneys who are not up to date on their knowledge of bankruptcy and secured transactions cannot properly counsel and represent their clients. Even a bankruptcy "in the vicinity" can greatly affect contracts, financing, participations, residuals and litigation. This program will feature a panel of experts explaining the fundamental principles and the latest legal developments in this area – knowledge which can be critical when film and television companies go under.
